Think on These Things

Philippians 4:8-9

For the next 3-4 editions we will focus on our thought processes. This edition we will focus on negative thinking.

So many people struggle with negative thinking. Negative thoughts poison the mind and ultimately the soul. It sets into motion a chain of events that will affect our attitude and the way we respond to others. Because we have been consumed with loads of negative responses to our being, which can come through our marriages, from our children, our co-workers, etc. we respond even to the simplest conversation or discussion negatively. And so the negatives vibes transfer as a defensive approach to a simple discussion.

"Beware of what you set your mind on because that you surely will become."

Ralph Waldo Emerson

WHO DO YOU MEMORIALIZE?

Minister N'fannie Kazouch

As we remember the sacrifice and service of those men and women of the armed forces who have served this nation, let us also NEVER forget one great Soldier who has served and continues to serve to this day. He bravely put on his armor and went to war with the enemy. It cost Him his life; a terrible price to pay; but He won a great victory. This Great Soldier gave His life, not for a nation, but for all humanity. His was not a life given in vain, but the sacrifice of His life served to set free the captives of sin.

He was Heaven's 10-star general. His name is Jesus. Do you know Him? Do you know of the battle he fought for you and for me? Are you aware of the sacrifice he made for us all?

Let us memorialize and remember the Great Soldier, Jesus:

Remember HIS APPEARING

Paul wrote of Him 1Tim 3:16 as "God manifest in the flesh," and said "in him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily," Col. 2:9.

Remember HIS ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Then Paul continues in the same verse (1 Tim 3:16) and says he was, "justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world..." In those four short phrases, Paul tells us about the earthly ministry of the Lord Jesus Christ. Paul exalts Him for His accomplishments.

Remember HIS ASCENSION

The last phrase of this verse is "received up into glory." Here, Paul is challenging us to remember the ascension of Jesus back into heaven after His resurrection. There is far more to His ascension than Him just rising back into Heaven. Remember the three-fold blessing that is in this verse.

1) The Glory Of His Ascension: When we see Him in glory, He will still have a body. His body will still be marked by the nail prints in His hands and feet. The marks of His thorny crown will still be evident. The stripes upon His back will still proclaim His eternal love for you and me. He will shine with a glory brighter than that of the son. He will be the light of Heaven.

2) The Grace Of His Ascension – When Jesus ascended, He sat down at the right hand of God. This tells us that His work of redeeming sinners was forever finished! He completed that work and ascended into Heaven. There, at the right hand of God in Heaven, Jesus makes intercession for you and me as we journey through this land toward home, Heb. 7:25; Rom. 8:34. He prays for us, and He is our Advocate against the attacks of the enemy, 1 John 2:1.

3) The Gravity Of His Ascension – When Jesus ascended back into Heaven, He did so with the promise that He would return again some day, Acts 1:11; John 14:1-3. When He comes, He is coming only for those who are saved by His grace and who are washed in His blood (Matt. 24:44).

I pray that you stay in His presence so that you will begin to reap the benefits.

IN JESUS NAME, AMEN!

Think in These Things

“Change your thoughts and you change the world.”

Norman Vincent Peale

“Two thoughts cannot occupy the mind at the same time, so the choice is ours whether or not our thoughts will be constructive or destructive.”

Betty Sachelli

Here are four common examples of negative thinking:

Four Kinds of Negative Thinking

1. Self-Pity: We all fall into this trap sooner or later. Life is hard for all of us. As the saying goes, into each life some rain must fall. It’s easy to think that somehow we’ve been dealt an unfair hand, that while our neighbor is basking in sunshine, we’re living in a perpetual downpour. This self-pitying person says, “You don’t know what I’m going through” or “You try living with this 24 hours a day and see how happy you are.”

2. Blaming: This is the other extreme. Blaming is an attempt to find a scapegoat for your problems. You can’t face life on your own, so you find another person who seems to be the source of your problems. It might be your husband or your wife; it could be your children or your parents. It often is a friend, a neighbor, or your boss or someone at church. Blaming is dangerous because it leads to perpetual victimhood.

3. Unwillingness to Change: This more or less follows from the first two categories. Once you immerse yourself in self-pity and once you discover that you are a victim, the logical conclusion is that you can’t or won’t change. Unfortunately, this type of negative thinking tends to reinforce itself. Since you can’t change, then your behavior can’t be your own fault. So you never have to face it honestly. This person says, “It’s no use trying. I’ll never change” and “I have every right to be hurt and I’m not going to give it up” or “I know it’s wrong but I’m not going to stop” or “God made me this way so it’s not my fault.”

4. Anger and Bitterness: Usually this is the logical outcome. Once you begin to pity yourself, you become a victim. But victims can’t be blamed, right? Therefore you refuse to face the possibility that you yourself are the source of your own problems. When others suggest otherwise, you get angry, defensive and bitter. You remember every miserable thing ever done to you or against you. You stew in your juices over the slightest negative remark made by others. You bristle at any notion that your life could be different. You hold grudges—even though you say you don’t. You glare and turn your head when you see your enemy coming toward you. You shut them out cold.

Your thoughts matter! Negative thinking leads to negative living.

WISDOM & UNDERSTANDING

PROVERBS 3

- 1 My son, do not forget my law, but let your heart keep my commands;
- 2 For length of days and long life And peace they will add to you.
- 3 Let not mercy and truth forsake you; Bind them around your neck, Write them on the tablet of your heart,
- 4 And so find favor and high esteem In the sight of God and man.
- 5 Trust in the Lord with all your heart, And lean not on your own understanding;
- 6 In all your ways acknowledge Him, And He shall direct your paths.
- 7 Do not be wise in your own eyes; Fear the Lord and depart from evil.
- 8 It will be health to your flesh, And strength[c] to your bones.
- 9 Honor the Lord with your possessions, And with the first fruits of all your increase;
- 10 So your barns will be filled with plenty, And your vats will overflow with new wine.
- 11 My son, do not despise the chastening of the Lord, Nor detest His correction;
- 12 For whom the Lord loves He corrects, Just as a father the son in whom he delights.
- 13 Happy is the man who finds wisdom, And the man who gains understanding;
- 14 For her proceeds are better than the profits of silver, And her gain than fine gold.
- 15 She is more precious than rubies, And all the things you may desire cannot compare with her.
- 16 Length of days is in her right hand, In her left hand riches and honor.
- 17 Her ways are ways of pleasantness, And all her paths are peace.
- 18 She is a tree of life to those who take hold of her, And happy are all who retain her.
- 19 The Lord by wisdom founded the earth; By understanding He established the heavens;
- 20 By His knowledge the depths were broken up, And clouds drop down the dew.
- 21 My son, let them not depart from your eyes— Keep sound wisdom and discretion;
- 22 So they will be life to your soul And grace to your neck.
- 23 Then you will walk safely in your way, And your foot will not stumble.
- 24 When you lie down, you will not be afraid; Yes, you will lie down and your sleep will be sweet.
- 25 Do not be afraid of sudden terror, Nor of trouble from the wicked when it comes;
- 26 For the Lord will be your confidence, And will keep your foot from being caught.
- 27 Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, When it is in the power of your hand to do so.
- 28 Do not say to your neighbor, “Go, and come back, And tomorrow I will give it,” When you have it with you.
- 29 Do not devise evil against your neighbor, For he dwells by you for safety’s sake.
- 30 Do not strive with a man without cause, If he has done you no harm.
- 31 Do not envy the oppressor, And choose none of his ways;
- 32 For the perverse person is an abomination to the Lord, But His secret counsel is with the upright.
- 33 The curse of the Lord is on the house of the wicked, But He blesses the home of the just.
- 34 Surely He scorns the scornful, But gives grace to the humble.
- 35 The wise shall inherit glory, But shame shall be the legacy of fools. †
