Think on These Things

"Change your thoughts and you change the world."
Norman Vincent Peale

THE BENEFITS OF POSITIVE THINKING

The Apostle Paul was a positive thinker. At the end of his letter to the Philippians, he gives a prescription for positive thinking that if followed has the power to transform your life. He said, in Philippians 4:8. Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things.

If you read this verse carefully, it admonishes you to be careful before you speak. It also teaches you to know when and what to speak by asking your thoughts questions.

GOD IS NOT FINISHED WITH US YET

Minister N'fannie Kazouch

We, most times, look for outward, spectacular results when we speak of God's miracle. A classic example:- When it comes to physical healing through our prayers, we look for only what the eye can see. We fail to see that the greater miracle is the transformation of a sinner into a saint by the grace of God. This is absolute sanctification. It's the work God does inside the heart of a believer in order to make him into a brand new person. Sanctification is the work of God. It is a lifetime process. God won't stop until the job is done.

Philippians 1:6 - Being confident of this very thing, that He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:

He starts the work in us:- God takes the initiative in starting His work in us. He makes the first move. What does that mean? We have been running from God since we were born. But God took the initiative, as a good Father should, to find us. And if He hadn't, we would still be running away from him. Not only does God start and continue the process, He guarantees the outcome. God won't be turned aside by difficulties of any kind. He is so determined to make you like Jesus that even your own backsliding won't hinder His purpose. What is incomplete will be made complete. What is unfinished will be finished. What is partial will be made whole. What is broken will be fixed. What is temporary will be made permanent.

God takes personal responsibility for completing His work in you. God intends that all His children be conformed to the image of Jesus Christ, and he will not rest until that "good work" is finished. And so because God isn't finished with us yet, we have great hope for the future.

He keeps us from falling:- God will complete His work in you. God has a purpose; and that is to present you before His glorious presence. Most importantly, He has the power; and that is to keep you from falling. God has ordained that those whom He calls to salvation will be so preserved that though they stumble along the way, they will not utterly fall away. He guards His children by His Spirit and with the holy angels to insure that none are lost during their earthly pilgrimage.

But what about our sins? They are covered by the blood of Jesus and judged at the Cross. All the failures of this life will be left far behind. All the undone work of a lifetime will be but a distant memory. In that great day we will be completely delivered from sin. God has willed it so.

He equips us to do His will:- God will never call us to do something without also and at the same time equipping us to do it; never. He simply will not do it. The word "equip" means to restore to proper working condition. You equip someone when you prepare them to be used for a proper purpose. God is willing to equip us to do everything He wants us to do.

No matter how difficult the challenges of life are, God will equip you to handle them. You don't even have to ask him. He never calls you to a difficult task without giving you what you need to get the job done.

He works in us from the inside out. "May He work in us what is pleasing to Him." If we need courage, He works that in us. If we need compassion, He gives it to us. If we need integrity, He builds it in. If we need wisdom, He imparts the wisdom we need. If we need common sense, He finds a way to give it to us.

So many of us look at a difficult situation and pray for the Lord to "change the situation." But, that's not usually God's will. This difficult situation has come to make you grow spiritually; to make you totally dependent on him. And so instead of praying for the Lord to change the situation, we should pray:- "Lord, change me so that I can face this situation." That's a prayer God is pleased to answer.

He promises to complete His work in us:- When Jesus returns, two great things will happen for the believer: (1) Our character will be revealed. (2) Our perfection will be complete.

What makes us think that God will ever finish the job? God is faithful. He won't quit halfway through a project. "The one who calls you is faithful, and He will do it." (1 Thessalonians 5:24). Why? Because God finishes what He starts.

Place Yourself in God's Hands. We may have doubts and fears. We may be angry and give up. But God does not change. He is faithful and He will do it. What is left for us? Simply to place ourselves in God's hands and say "Lord, here am I. Make me what you want me to be."

Take heart. God is at work in your life. He will not stop until the job is done.

May God bless and keep you. In His Service!

Think on These Things

"Change your thoughts and you change the world."
Norman Vincent Peale

THE BENEFITS OF POSITIVE THINKING

"Whatever is true." Is what you are speaking, the truth? With this question in mind, you re-visit your statement for any dishonesty and weed them out. If you want to come clean, you've got to start telling the truth.

"Whatever is noble." Is it gracious? Is it dignified? Is it decent? Is it worthy of reverence? In other words, is your thought life honorable? Do you think about things that have purpose and meaning? Or do you dwell on the frivolous and trivial stuff?

"Whatever is right." Is it right? Meaning, is it in agreement with God's standards; not your standards. It should be right in God's eyes. In other words, do not render judgment based on your standards.

"Whatever is pure." Is it pure? Is your thought-life clean? Is it holy? Get your mind out of the "gutter" or your mind will be covered with dirt and slime. Re-arrange your thoughts so that they are in agreement with God's standards.

"Whatever is lovely." Is it lovely? Do you think about those things that are beautiful and lovely? A thought may be true and even right but still not be lovely. Here's a simple rule: If it's not lovely, if it doesn't make you lovely, don't say it, don't think it, don't do it, don't dwell on it, and don't repeat it!

"Whatever is admirable." Is it admirable? Do you focus on the things that are positive not negative, constructive not destructive, things that build up not the things that tear down. Clean out your vocabulary so that when you speak (especially on impulse) it will be to clean not dirty; you will be teaching not defiling.

Paul speaks of certain things that are so evil that "it is shameful even to mention what the disobedient do in secret." - Ephesians 5:12. Don't dwell on those things that are evil. Don't focus on the evil around you! Sin is so sinful that we do well to stay as far away from it as possible.

Paul points the way toward positive thinking. Paul says, "Think on these things." It's a command. It's in the present tense. Focus your thoughts as Paul has instructed us to. Find the true and think about it. Find the noble and think about it. Find the lovely and think about it. Find the virtuous and think about it. Do it so that "...the God of peace will be with you." (Philippians 4:9). Those who think on these things experience God's peace in their lives.

PRAYER FOCUS PEACE

All scripture references are from the King James

Philippians 4:6-7
Paul's Prescription for Peace

Pray for peace where there are wars.
Pray for peace between political parties.
Pray for peace between feuding families.
Pray for peace for the fuses and feuds in churches
Pray for peace in your own hearts
Pray for peace with God.

"Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus" (Phil. 4:6-7).

"Be anxious for nothing."

Stress produced by anxiety is one of the greatest mental health problems. Christians need to stay on the side of not being anxious. Jesus had a lot to say about anxiety. "Therefore I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink; nor about your body, what you will put on....Therefore, do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about its own things. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble" (Matt. 6:25-34).

Paul learned how to be content (Phil. 4:11-13). Paul encourages us to be content (1 Tim. 6:6-8) Remember what God has promised, "...I will never leave you nor forsake you."

"But in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God."

God's antidote to worry is prayer. Pray with thanksgiving! "In everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you" (1 Thess. 5:18).

"And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus."

"Peace I leave with you. My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you..." (Jn. 14:27).

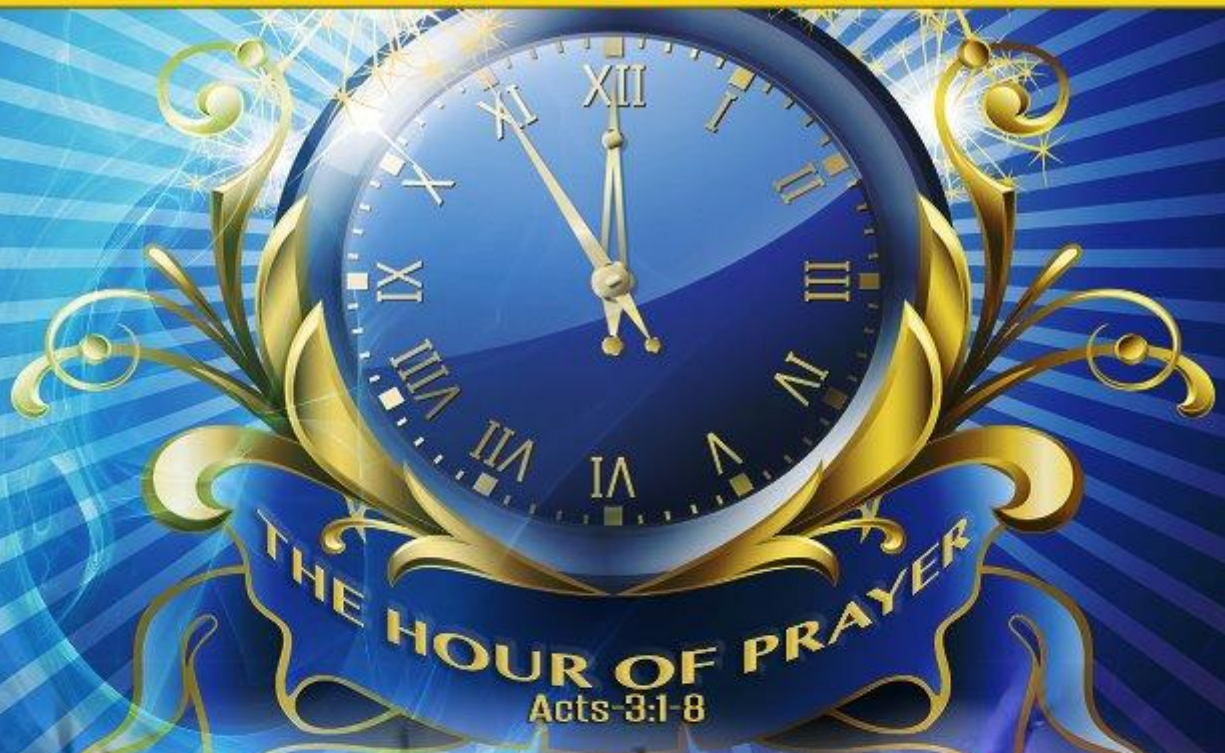

This peace surpasses understanding; it "passes knowledge" (Eph. 3:19).

"You will keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on You, because he trusts in You" (Isa. 26:3).

Philippians 4:4-7: Always be full of joy in the Lord. I say it again—rejoice! Let everyone see that you are considerate in all you do. Remember, the Lord is coming soon.

Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done. Then you will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus.
